

Quality instruction old parts

Engine

Old engines need to comply to the following standards in order to receive 100% of the deposit:

- The engine block can not have any visible cracks
- The crankshaft can not have any visible cracks
- The unit needs to be complete and mounted
- Oil and water need to be drained and protection plugs need to be placed

When the unit is not complete, some amount will be deducted from the deposit.

Engines with visible outside damages from an accident or fire, will not be accepted for returning the deposit.

The unit needs to be returned on the same bracket upon which the corresponding unit was delivered.

Gearbox

Old gearboxes need to comply to the following standards in order to receive 100% of the deposit:

- Gearbox casing can not have any visible cracks
- It needs to be possible the turn the ingoing axle by hand when any gear is activated
- The old unit needs to be mounted and equipped like the corresponding new unit
- Oil needs to be drained from the gearbox

When the unit is not complete, some amount will be deducted from the deposit.

Gearboxes with visible outside damages from an accident or fire, will not be accepted for returning the deposit.

The unit needs to be returned on the same bracket upon which the corresponding unit was delivered.

Differential

Old differentials need to comply to the following standards in order to receive 100% of the deposit:

- The differential can not have any visible cracks
- The differential needs to be complete
- The old unit needs to be mounted and equipped like the corresponding new unit
- Oil needs to be drained from the differential

When the unit is not complete, some amount will be deducted from the deposit.

Differentials with visible outside damages from an accident or fire, will not be accepted for returning the deposit.

The unit needs to be returned on the same bracket upon which the corresponding unit was delivered.